Sibling Budget Transfer Procedure

Students that are designated as HomeSchool students may transfer funds between siblings provided the procedures below are followed:

1. One sibling transfer can be made either to a sibling or from a sibling once per semester.
2. A maximum amount of 250 Educational Units (EUs) can be transferred FROM one sibling per semester.
3. Any one student may only have a maximum annual budget of 3200 EUs after transfers.
4. The transfer must be approved by the family Teacher, School's Principal (or Director), and the school's Business Technician in order to be valid.
5. Funds must be used for valid educational requests and subject to the student's attainable goal.
6. Transferred funds must be used in accordance with all PCI Student Budget Policies and Procedures.
7. PCI reserves the right to refuse any transfer if PCI Student Budget Policies and Procedures are not followed.
8. Sibling Budget Transfer Requests must be submitted by the deadline
